IT IS WITH A FEELING OF certainty that we predict that next week will be the busiest week of the season. Our reasons for entertaining such a feeling of sorety are many.

t it is most evident that those that have delaye buying on account of the weather not forcing them to MUST DO SO NOW. and it is natural that we wish mainly to impress those deterred purchasers that we want as many of them as possible to come early in the morning, in order to avoid the rush you must encounter in busy season. As we wish to show every customer proper attention, we would like to have it so arranged that you all do not come at one time. So those that can come in the early portion of the day would do well to do so, and a the same time obligate us. We recommend a careful perusal of the prices we quote, as they are the lowest prices at which these goods can be offered. We show all the different novelties in DRESS GOODS, both for dress and street wear, that have been Our buyer attended a large auction sale in New York on last Thursday and bought some of the greatest bargains in SILKS and SATINS yet known. All of which we are willing you should have part of

Through this purchase we are enabled to sell you a 75c. Satin in all the different desirable shades AT 50c. A $1 Gros Grain 20-inch Silk in Black AT 82c.

Fancy Satins and Silks proportionately low. We have a beautiful line of Embroidered Satins, something superb, very reasonable. Our stock o. Plain and Brocade Velvets are not alone the largest, but the most varied. We still sell a Nice Veivet in all colors and black AT 90c., FULLY WORTH $1. The New Department Building. REPORT OF COL. THOS. L. CASEY. Col. Thos. L. Casey, in his report to the Secretary of War on the operations on the building for the State, War and Navy departments during the fiscal year ending June 30, '85, states that only the west and center wings of this building remain to be completed. The masonry of those wings was carried nearly to the second story floor by the close of the fiscal year, and since that time the work has progressed steadily and rapidly. During the present fiscal year it is expected to complete all the masoury of the building and much of the interior work. With seasonable and sufficient appropriations the building may be entirely finished in about two years from this time. Deeming the experience of one who has been in the commission during the time to which the report will relate, of the utmost value in its prepara-tion, and fully convinced that the knowledge gained by a connection with the administration of the law would be a great help at the outset to the new commission, I obtained the consent of Mr. Eaton to remain temporarily in the com mission; and I have to-day appointed him in the place of Mr. Thoman, the former democratic member.
